Please take the novation issue to S&W for a view asap. tie/DLA are insisting that it is all ok which is an unacceptable position bearing in mind the very clear conflict DLA has arising from the significant defects in their drafting of the minute of variation.

If those involved will not accept the very clear advice of its internal lawyers we have no choice but to spend some money externally to protect the public purse from a more expensive mistake.

Guys,
Can you take a final pass at this document. Can you let me know final questions that you have to bring this to conclusion.

Alan,

Latest attempt to shift this a little further, I need to have a conversation with CAF later this week before I may be able to add some further comfort.

Regards,

Alastair
