Jesus/Antonio

It was a great pleasure to meet you yesterday and very good of you to come to London at such short notice. I thought we were able to discuss the problems dispassionately and as a consequence I am hopeful good will emerge.

I am sure that you realise that we are not embarked on some Machiavellian plan to destroy the Consortium or to terminate the Infraco Contract without proper cause. Moreover, I think you understand that the repeated refusal by BSC to accept the work we have done with Ed Kitzman destroys the credibility of pragmatists and that we are now reaching a point where politics will take over.

We understand that Mr. Enenkel is meeting his team on Monday to decide on next steps. Scotland is a small place and we are also aware of "urgent" meetings being called by Bilfinger with their sub-contractors.

I can also tell you that not only do we think your wise counsel with your consortium partners would be helpful I can tell you that Ed Kitzman thinks it would be – before Monday.

We look forward to hearing from you about meeting at the end of next week.

Anthony
