Tony,

I've gone through an exercise to compare the draft Financial & Cost Report you kindly prepared and the numbers per our reported Carlisle cost estimates (which must be my starting point) which are not a million miles away in total but we should discuss the individual elements to make sure we're on the same page. I hear you are with us tomorrow and maybe we can get together then.

Cheers,
Stewart

I attach a draft report format which I have put together to get my mind thinking. I will be over at about 1030 MOnday – can we find sometime in the morning to identify actions needed to complete please?

Tony
