Importance: High

Nick,

I have been directed by the Council Solicitor to instruct you to read through the attached documents received from tie. This is top priority, and I would like to hear from you by Wednesday afternoon, with your views on the implications for the Council on risks, liabilities, step-in rights etc. This report is for internal consumption only.

Regards,

Colin

Colin

Lesley is not in the office today but has passed me a message to forward some contractual information to you

Please find attached to this email the draft Infraco contract which is currently in the process of fairly intensive negotiations – we are hopeful a marked up version will be well advanced by the end of next week

I shall shortly forward the tramco contracts for your attention as well
