Attached for information. I have discussed with Lord Hardie and Ross and attach my response to CEC setting out what we want, and do not want, by 4.30 on Monday. For discussion whether we should be citing the current Chief Executive to explain.

Gordon,

I should have said that the files will be delivered to the Inquiry today.

Matthew.

Subject: Sue Bruce Files

Gordon,

As discussed in our recent telephone conversation the Chief Executive is moving out of his office. During the clear out that resulted further Sue Bruce papers were discovered. It is obviously of great embarrassment to the Council that this has occurred and I offer an unreserved apology to the Inquiry for this.

As advised I suspect that the vast majority of the papers will not be of great interest to the Inquiry as they relate to implementation in 2012 onwards. I have not had an opportunity to go through the files in great detail. If there is any legal advice that relates to the litigation I can advise that I am not waiving privilege in respect of that.

Once again my apologies for the late discovery of these documents.

Matthew.
