Can I pursue this and organise meeting, I want Ailsa to manage the SDS contract and she will report to Trudi. Are you ok with rate? It would probably be best if you deal with commercial aspects as I am employed thru Nichols.

OK, here we go. Ailsa is available to meet with you on Friday afternoon and subject to everyone being happy can start on Monday 7 August.
Ailsa does have a couple of days commitment during August and September, hopefully this would not cause you too much of a problem.

The rate for Ailsa would be [REDACTED] per day, excluding VAT.

I look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible.

Regards
Jan

As is the nature of client organisations this has become urgent again. I have to tread carefully because of the Nichols tie up but I believe I have cleared some of the path.
We would like to meet Ailsa as soon as possible, subject to her soonest availability and rate- can you advise on both soonest.
The jury is out on Walker although I would still like to meet him at some stage.
As I understand it Ailsa may only be available short term but we are still keen to see her, vital is the earliest start- any chance of seeing her this week and starting next week if we think she will fit?

Apologies again for apparent indecisiveness.

Andie

Dear Andie

Following on from Peter's e-mail below, I am waiting for confirmation of the availability of one our consultants and hope to be able to contact you later today with that information.

Andie, in the meantime would you like to see Roger Walker's cv, who we feel would be ideal for this role but is not able to start with you until mid September?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best Regards

Jan,

Andie Harper wants a project manager to work within the Tram Project to manage the 'soft' aspects, processes etc. The requirement is from ASAP for at least 3 months, probably 6 months. Andie would be happy (if necessary) to have someone from London on a weekly commute, to be replaced with a local consultants as soon as that is possible.

Who could we offer immediately? In the longer-term this should be a role for Roger Walker (probable start 4 September, but then needs induction in Nichols). We therefore need someone to hold the fort from now until mid-September.

Please can you deal directly with Andie Harper on this one.

Thanks

Peter
