Information Request, Use of Personal Information
Edinburgh Tram Inquiry

Dear Carol

I have received your letter dated 25 August by recorded delivery on 27 August. I would confirm that I do not consent to you providing my personal information of my home address to the Inquiry Team or any party.

As you will know, the City of Edinburgh Council will have had my personal information for use when I was an employee of the Council, up to August 2010. I have not provided my consent for the personal information of my address to be provided to you nor used by you for the purpose of your letter of 25 August 2014. This is now a seasonal address. I wish my personal information to be and remain private in respect of my right to privacy and family life.

I do not wish to receive any further correspondence whatsoever from you or the Council in respect of this or any other matter using the personal information of my home address, which may have been retained by the Council, from and as at, 2010.

Yours sincerely

Gill Lindsay
