Richard

Sorry to trouble you but I have been passed the Mackinnon Consult Ltd contract for signature by CEC.

- Apart from the exclusion of third party right clause it is not clear why CEC need to sign such a document?
- The signing versions appear to have blacklining in them.
- We haven't been given an opportunity to review the document before signing. Not that I have an issue with most of the drafting but there are a couple of minor anomalies.
- This is similar to the position for the Currie agreement which I queried at the time and received no response (Oct 2009). I'll send you the email.

Kind regards

Nick
