Gill,

Further to Duncan's email, can you advise whether you have had a chance to review the DLA letter, and whether you are happy with it. I appreciate that tie have a lot of work to do to finalise a deal this week, but assuming they do, we need to make sure we are in a position to let them sign the contract.

Please get in touch with me if you need any assistance.

Kind regards,

Rebecca

Can you advise me on your comfort about the DLA letters (3 number) and whither they go far enough in meeting your expectations on quality and risk to enable you to advise or not Chief Executive and Directors on the contractual position towards agreeing for the documents to be signed.

Nick I have received an out of office agent now from Colin. It is essential that matters are progressed with appropriate communication if they are significant issues.

Colin

I have considered briefly. My questions are is Tie aware of issues and have resolutions been agreed. Time is of the essence. There are significant issues at present and Tie have briefed Directors and Tom this morning. However Tie wish to be in a position to close with immediate effect if and when resolution is agreed. Any outstanding matters must be resolved with Tie very quickly.
