Andrew

Off the top of my head I would say it depends on what is in the Agreement.

I am minded that we will make it a condition of the Minute of Variation for Carlisle.

I will certainly be referring to it in the Explanatory Note.

Jo and I have reached the stage in our drafting where the Carlisle Team are looking at the Terms for consistency I have told Jo that I will draft tonight what I think some refer to as step-in and interface of the On-street. In addition to that and the disclosure of Agreements I will also draft a requirement for re-approval of Infracore Representative and Key Personnel and a requirement that none other than approved Key Personnel will be authorised to act in a superintendence position.

By the way – a solid performance by the Chairman and Richard today – they beat Darcy & Wakeford about the head about everything other than what this chap Jack Daniels does – will bring you up-to-speed when we speak tomorrow evening.

Would like you to take a look at the Clause 60 RTN – Jo and I debated the words in places. Richard wants to get it away.

Tony

Given Darcy's open admission today that there is an agreement between SDS and BB, is this (or their failure to disclose it) a suitable subject for an RTN?
