

Notes on telephone conversation with Dr J Keysberg on 09 02 09

1.	Apologies for today's meeting. He was cruising around in mid-air until 0300 hours before being diverted back to Frankfurt.
2.	Agreed to reschedule as soon as possible – in fact no later than next week. The only time I have available is the morning of 17 th (or maybe dinner or supper).
3.	He will try to bring an Executive Director from Siemens (query Dr Schaeffer?)
4.	He shares our huge concerns re: progress: where we might end up: public and political damage: how we might resolve and the enormous pressures.
5.	He thought the gap was LITTLE for different reasons. I made the point that they certainly weren't LITTLE but rather a huge void of understanding with likely catastrophic consequences for both of us.
6.	Finally, he agreed we should let today's management meeting proceed but shared my view that any agreement emerging was likely only to be about the date of the next meeting!!
