Nick

Thanks for the comments, particularly the governance issues. No doubt the financial update on 1a will be kicked to death before the report goes public.

Alan

Good report. Initial comments attached. I have put in the claims bit to hopefully save you some time but would appreciate a view from yourself the others re "appropriateness". Note that my redraft of the cost estimates is a first stab and needs some finessing. I don't like the word "minimum" but can't think of a more appropriate term at the moment.

Kind regards

Nick

Guys

I need to do some serious work on this, it is very much draft. I also need to shoehorn in Nick's governance wording.
