Sharon

Good to hear from you and thank you for this which I have considered very briefly. Colin will liaise with you on this. I am asking my office to arrange a meeting early in the week beginning 10 December as you may be available as I would like to be personally engaged as we move towards December Council. Colin will likely wish contact through next week.

Kind regards
Gill

Gill

Colin had sent me an e-mail yesterday for a response before close of business. Unfortunately, I was out of the office in Glasgow all day hence inability to response within that deadline. I was able, however, able to speak with Andrew who let me know that his intention was to release report today for LAC. So in some measure the attached draft letter serves two purposes. It would be our intention to update this letter for the report to the LAC on Wednesday next week. We remain engaged on a daily basis with the Consortium in order to drive out as many solutions to outstanding issues as possible.

Should you wish to discuss any aspect of this draft letter, please let me know. I am contactable tomorrow although may be in meetings for parts of the day. I know Andrew is also available subject to meetings with the Consortium. We will issue this tomorrow to you by e-mail and post.

Regards

Sharon
