Andrew,

Attached is your draft report (which I only started reviewing 20 mins ago) with my comments on it. I personally think the report reads like CEC believe tie needs to have greater control exercised over its activities in addition to the Operating Agreement, tie Board, TEL and TPB governance processes in place – i.e. suggesting what we already have is insufficient. I also think the portrayal of CEC's role in the project as banker is incomplete. My sincere apologies if I have gotten the wrong impression.

I will copy this around internally at tie to keep all up to speed.

Regards,

Stewart
