Alright -but Gerry says he has it in hand within tie. We are awaiting information from Jim Cahill.

Stewart Galloway, one of our guys who was on Mersey could be right for this role. CV and scope for this follows for you to look at.

Suggest discussing contacts made on Friday for update when convenient.

Kind regards

Ian

Given the situation where tie has PB performance under the SDS contract under continual review and the increasing likelihood that through Infracore procurement sections of design scope will be excised (contractually), I would recommend increased vigilance that their delivery and quality is being tracked and documented.

Sharon has mentioned to me that there is some push-back , particularly in the MUDFA progress meetings, which indicates that PB have begun their own collation of evidence on alleged client-side shortcomings.

Would you like us to play a role in supporting Gerry and the team on this?

Kind regards

Andrew Fitchie
