Matthew,

What is happening here?

I've spoken to Steven and we will take this up as soon as Matthew surfaces. The DLA role is one part of a difficult picture here and we will need to find a pragmatic solution if tomorrow isn't going to be jeopardized.

Thanks for understanding. Will get on it now. Need your support on this matter below.

We were asked yesterday morning to get back involved in the ERs. We have not seen these since early Jan. We have spoken about the issue in brief. The ERs are probably the most important piece of the contract.

Upshot is there has been an extensive 'legal' review by BBS which needs to be challenged and quelled with compromise on , I suspect, scores of insertions, questions, objections etc. Which have not prioritised in any way. Some will certainly be justified others simply chaff. Because I had no notice of this need until yesterday, Sharon(who did the original DLAP three day speed read and quick fix of the ERs (650 pages) is booked for meetings today with John Casserly on MUDFA.

It makes no sense for me to put someone else, or more junior, on this today since this will be about making important judgment calls to get a result for tie in the only time we have left.

Please could you explain to John and his counterparts the need to postpone his meetings that unless we have this session on the ERs today, there is likely not to be a MUDFA. I will also organise Sharon (plus support) to engage at 10.30 this morning and then for the duration..

Kind regards

Pretty frustrating. I have had my IT folk check for the 11 to Midnight version. Because I had my lap top down at tie this pm, the version of the doc I created last night with the complete tramco section has gone/is badly corrupted.

Session this pm was pretty slow. BBS seem immune to threats of loss of project.

I will do again in the morning.
