Thank you for the information and clarifications by earlier mails and our call today. It would also be helpful if you could forward the relevant parts of the current draft contract re liability, indemnity and required insurances on both BBS and Tie for completeness. Appreciate the situation is not now fixed. Appreciate you will be meeting relevant parties on Monday and we will be updated during Monday.

Kind regards
Gill

As discussed, please find attached the papers we discussed this afternoon mapping the varying positions adopted by BBS over the last few days in relation to the contractual indemnity for third party liability and the corresponding insurance cover.

Kind regards.
