Leader's Report - September 2010

Welcome to my September report to Council. As we enter the most difficult and testing times for public finances for many decades, getting the Council's budget right for the next few years is absolutely critical. In this report you will find details of the biggest budget engagement and consultation exercise ever conducted by the Council to help identify the priorities for the city.

I have also included information on the Papal State Visit and brief details on the preferred candidate for the Chief Executive position following the retiral of Tom Aitchison later in the year. You will also find information on a range of successes and awards over the last month.

I hope that you find this report interesting. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have suggestions or comments that you feel could improve how the Council operates, or if you wish to offer a view on any matter.

Councillor Jenny Dawe
Leader - City of Edinburgh Council
