Legally Privileged

Brandon

I am writing direct to you on this because I believe this to be an instruction of work from tie to McGrigors, not an item related to the MOV or HOT from Mar Hall. If you do not agree please let me know and I will go through Alastair Maclean at CEC.

On the above basis, thank you for this and the "straw man" attached.

I think it fits the bill, although it may be helpful to include a link to the work Drysdale has done on procurement issues. I think it would be helpful to note the legal position with such a separation termination and whether there are reduced, increased or essentially neutral effects from the Mar Hall HOT & MOV.

Cyril Sweett have submitted their report and as we discussed on the phone, there are a couple of additions that we await from them. Dennis has suggested he arranges to meet Simona (or whoever you wish to give this work to) next week to brief her on the Cyril Sweett report face to face.

If you are in agreement with this course of action, could you ask Simona to arrange time with Dennis at her convenience.

Regards

Steven

Steven

Further to the discussion which I had with you and Dennis last week I attach a "straw man" for your consideration and comment.

I understand that Cyril Sweett will be producing their report this week and it would be useful to be taken through this and any updated report prepared by tie when convenient to you.

Regards

Brandon
