Pitchfork (Private & Confidential) – Design Development (1 of 2)

All,

In terms of pinpointing when the shape, form etc description of design development crept in the ETN lexicon.....

Below and attached is the Weisbaden deal as it stood in draft on 19th Dec 2007 – the day before it was signed. At this stage does not have the “For avoidance of doubt....” paragraph on design development.

2nd email to follow.

Richard

Further to our discussion earlier I have amended the agreement (in red italics) for the wording we agreed. We are I believe now clear to sign up on this basis and move forward. For the avoidance of doubt please confirm this by return.

I will talk to Scott regarding the additional paving issue at the Shanwick Place tramstop.

Regards

Geoff Gilbert - Project Commercial Director
